COLUMBIA WON IN A ZEPHYR.

BATEMAN'S POINT, R. I., Aug. 12.—Columbia again defeated Constitution, the new cup defender, off Newport today. This time the old cup champion won in a light breeze, which at times almost died out, precisely the conditions most favorable to the new boat.

Constitution crossed the finish line first by 58 seconds, but Columbia won on time allowance. As the yachts have not been measured recently the amount of time which the Constitution allows Columbia is not known exactly, but it is something more than a minute.

Constitution Got Best Start.

To-day the Constitution got the better of the start, crossing a quarter of a minute ahead of the Columbia. The start as seen from the shore was as follows:

the port tack, the Constitution breaking out her No. 2 jibtopsail before crossing, while the Columbia went over with No. 1 jibtopsail set. Both carried their No. 2 clubtopsails and headed off to the southeast for the first mark. At this time the wind was blowing about five knots from the northeast and rain was falling.

They soon tacked their way into the baze and disappeared from view. Constitution apparently gaining all the time. When they came in sight again they were about two miles from the finish, and the Constitution appeared to be leading by less than half a mile. The wind had hauled to the eastward and they had made the last leg without any windward work.

Then the wind began to head off the racers, and Constitution made a short board on the port tack, crossing a short distance ahead of the Columbia, who was standing for the finish on the port tack.

Columbia crossed the finish line at 12.03.38, less than a minute behind the Constitution, and won the race on time allowance.

"I'M STILL ALIVE," SAYS GLENNON.

Wardman Glennon returned to the Tenderloin police station at 5 o'clock. He said that he had been out on police and personal business. "You see I am still alive," he said. "I am uncertain as to what I shall do—whether I shall continue on my vacation or not."

HAT MAKERS IN A BIG TRUST.

DUNLAP, KNOX AND OTHERS WILL BE IN NEW CONCERN.

The Corporation Will Have Millions of Capital and Trade Will Be Systematized—Larger Profits for All and Better and Cheaper Goods Are Promised.

A big hat trust, with Dunlap & Co. and Edward M. Knox & Co. as the principals, is forming. The amount of capital has not been fixed, but it will be several millions, as most of the large hat manufacturers in the East will join it.

Herbert Knight, of No. 20 Broad street, who is financing the proposed corporation, says that all details will be arranged in the near future, and the concern incorporated under the New Jersey laws.

The object of the trust, he said, was to systematize the trade. It will mean larger profits for all concerned and cheaper hats for the public.

Each member of the trust will manufacture one particular style of headgear and each will be assessed pro rata on the capital invested.

DADY TO RESIGN CHAIRMANSHIP.

BUSINESS PREVENTS FURTHER ACTIVE POLITICAL WORK.

Tragic Death of His Superintendent, Charles Cregin, Throws More Work on Him and He Will Spend Much Time in Cuba—A. D. Baird May Succeed Him.

Michael J. Dady announced to-day that he would resign the chairmanship of the Kings County Republican Committee. His business affairs, he says, will occupy all of his time, he declares.

Owing to the death of his superintendent, Charles A. Cregin, who shot himself in the St. George Hotel, Brooklyn, last Friday, Mr. Dady finds himself handicapped, and will have to spend much of his time in Cuba until he finds some person capable of filling Cregin's place.

Mr. Dady's resignation at this time will offer further contests between the Brooklyn Republican factions for a while, as they will probably agree on a new man for the place.

Andrew D. Baird is spoken of as Dady's successor.

BOTH BASEBALL GAMES CALLED OFF.

Both the New York-Philadelphia and the Brooklyn-Boston baseball games scheduled for this afternoon had to be declared off because of rain and wet grounds.

Governor Will Take Immediate Action if the Mayor Fails to Apply a Remedy for the Evils.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEWBURG, N. Y., Aug. 12.—From a statement made by Gov. Odell to an Evening World staff correspondent this afternoon it is evident that the days of Murphy and others in the Police Department are very brief.

"I have sent Mr. Graham, my private secretary, to New York," said he, "to see District-Attorney Philbin, Justice Jerome and Mr. Moss, with instructions to have made and reported to me a thorough investigation of the charges of police corruption."

"This work will be done as soon as possible, and immediately all of the detail will be placed before me."

"It will not be necessary for others to file formal complaints, as I can act on the information furnished in these reports."

The Governor did not announce his intention, but it was evident from the manner in which he expressed himself it was apparent that once in possession of the facts of the case his action would be immediate and drastic.

"I HAVE THE POWER TO ACT," SAID HE, "AND SHALL DO SO ON MY OWN RESPONSIBILITY IF I DEEM IT NECESSARY OR IF THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES DO NOT. I MEAN MAYOR VAN WYCK."

Gov. Odell will go to Albany to-night, but says he will not consider the police matter until later in the week. Graham will probably return to Newburg to-morrow and present to the Governor the information he obtains.

"NOT A WORD I CARE TO SAY," DECLARES MAYOR VAN WYCK.

Mayor Van Wyck, who has declared Devery the "best Chief of Police New York has ever had," when asked what action he would take regarding the exposure of police corruption, said:

"I must follow out my old rule and decline to be interviewed. There is not a word I care to say about this, and not a word will I say."

Madden restraining the Board of Estimate from entering into a contract with the New York Sanitary Utilization Company for the disposition of the city garbage for $232,000 a year for the period of five years.

NEW TENEMENT LAW NOT ADOPTED.

EX-GOV. NEWELL'S BODY IN VAULT.

—The body of ex-Gov. Newell, of New Jersey, was removed to-day from the State House in Trenton, where it had been lying in state, and placed in a vault in the cemetery there.

ODELL'S MAN SEES PHILBIN.

Police Commissioner Murphy has asked District-Attorney Philbin to indict Deputy Commissioner Devery, Wardman Glennon and every other police official, high or low, who may be guilty of connection with the pool-rooms. He believes the cases should be immediately and vigorously prosecuted.

James G. Graham, private secretary of Gov. Odell, called on District-Attorney Philbin this forenoon and asked for a conference on the Whitney confession. The two men consulted privately for some time, and the confession was gone over carefully.

Mr. Graham bore a letter from the Governor asking for a full report on the condition of the Police Department.

After Mr. Graham's departure Mr. Philbin summoned Assistant District-Attorney Osborne, the fearless young prosecutor, who secured Wardman Bissett's conviction. The entire police prosecutions that will be soon begun will be in charge of Mr. Osborne.

Wardman Glennon returned to the city to-day and, securing a bondsman, went to the Tenderloin station prepared to be arrested.

The first action of District-Attorney Philbin when he appeared at his office to-day was the preparation of the police corruption case for the Grand Jury.

His assistants, Garvan and Schurman, who heard Whitney's confession Saturday, were summoned to his private office. The confession was gone over carefully. Then followed a conference with Justice Jerome, after which all speed was made to put the matter in the Grand Jury room.

David N. Carvalho, the handwriting expert, has been called into the police corruption case. He visited the office of Mr. Philbin this afternoon, and was for a long time closeted with the District-Attorney and Frank Moss. He examined a number of checks that were in the possession of the police.
